

4 WHAT'S GROWING IN THE HOOP?

- a Take a hula hoop out to the playground and lay it on an area of grass, bush or weeds in a garden.
- b Record how many of each type of plant are inside the hoop.
- c Draw a graph to display the data you have collected.
- d Write three statements about what you have discovered.
- e Compare the data you have collected with data collected inside other hoops.
- f What do you notice?
- g Who do you think might be interested in this data?
- h Make some predictions about what you might find.

CHAPTER 18 - PG 293

4 WHAT'S GROWING IN THE HOOP?

- a Take a hula hoop out to the playground and lay it on an area of grass, bush or weeds in a garden.
- b Record how many of each type of plant are inside the hoop.
- c Draw a graph to display the data you have collected.
- d Write three statements about what you have discovered.
- e Compare the data you have collected with data collected inside other hoops.
- f What do you notice?
- g Who do you think might be interested in this data?
- h Make some predictions about what you might find.

CHAPTER 18 - PG 293

4 WHAT'S GROWING IN THE HOOP?

- a Take a hula hoop out to the playground and lay it on an area of grass, bush or weeds in a garden.
- b Record how many of each type of plant are inside the hoop.
- c Draw a graph to display the data you have collected.
- d Write three statements about what you have discovered.
- e Compare the data you have collected with data collected inside other hoops.
- f What do you notice?
- g Who do you think might be interested in this data?
- h Make some predictions about what you might find.

CHAPTER 18 - PG 293

4 WHAT'S GROWING IN THE HOOP?

- a Take a hula hoop out to the playground and lay it on an area of grass, bush or weeds in a garden.
- b Record how many of each type of plant are inside the hoop.
- c Draw a graph to display the data you have collected.
- d Write three statements about what you have discovered.
- e Compare the data you have collected with data collected inside other hoops.
- f What do you notice?
- g Who do you think might be interested in this data?
- h Make some predictions about what you might find.

CHAPTER 18 - PG 293