

● Thinking about time?

- a How is measuring time different from measuring length, weight and capacity?
- b How was time measured before clocks were invented?
- c How do each of these clocks work?

hour glass

sun dial

water clock

Which of the clocks do you think is the easiest to use in telling the time?
Explain.

- Think of three activities that would be very difficult if there were no clocks or watches.