

8 WHAT IS IT?

- an object
- measuring instruments

- a Each person in the group secretly chooses an object.
- b Measure as many things as you can about your object without letting the others see.

Example

Jess chose her school bag.
She measured its height, weight and length.

- c Describe your object to your group without naming it or what it is used for.

My object has a length of ...

- d Try to guess the object being described.

8 WHAT IS IT?

- an object
- measuring instruments

- a Each person in the group secretly chooses an object.
- b Measure as many things as you can about your object without letting the others see.

Example

Jess chose her school bag.
She measured its height, weight and length.

- c Describe your object to your group without naming it or what it is used for.

My object has a length of ...

- d Try to guess the object being described.

8 WHAT IS IT?

- an object
- measuring instruments

- a Each person in the group secretly chooses an object.
- b Measure as many things as you can about your object without letting the others see.

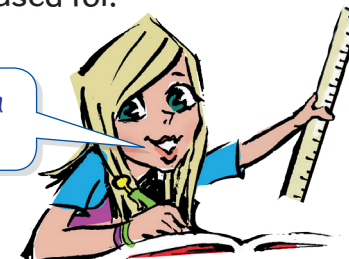

Example

Jess chose her school bag.
She measured its height, weight and length.

- c Describe your object to your group without naming it or what it is used for.

My object has a length of ...

- d Try to guess the object being described.