

8 THE MODEL

- 1 Find a group of cuboid-shaped objects.

For example

You could choose your school buildings if they are cuboids.

- 2 By looking at the plane shapes that make up each cuboid, make a simple model of your group of objects.
- 3 Make an isometric drawing of the group of objects.

CHAPTER 15

8 THE MODEL

- 1 Find a group of cuboid-shaped objects.

For example

You could choose your school buildings if they are cuboids.

- 2 By looking at the plane shapes that make up each cuboid, make a simple model of your group of objects.
- 3 Make an isometric drawing of the group of objects.

CHAPTER 15

8 THE MODEL

- 1 Find a group of cuboid-shaped objects.

For example

You could choose your school buildings if they are cuboids.

- 2 By looking at the plane shapes that make up each cuboid, make a simple model of your group of objects.
- 3 Make an isometric drawing of the group of objects.

CHAPTER 15

8 THE MODEL

- 1 Find a group of cuboid-shaped objects.

For example

You could choose your school buildings if they are cuboids.

- 2 By looking at the plane shapes that make up each cuboid, make a simple model of your group of objects.
- 3 Make an isometric drawing of the group of objects.

CHAPTER 15