

IS IT OK TO ESTIMATE?

In which of these situations would it be OK to estimate?

Will I have enough money when I get to the checkout?

I want to know how much it will cost to decorate my room with posters.

Am I better to download my music from the online store or buy it on CDs?

I want to know if I have enough material for the dress.

I need to work out how much medicine to give Tilly.

If you thought an estimate was OK, would you be better to overestimate or underestimate? Explain.
