

- Point out the horizontal and vertical lines in these photos. Find some examples of horizontal and vertical lines around you.

- Point out some sloping lines in the photos. Give some examples of sloping lines around your school.

- Think of three examples of things that turn. Estimate the angle each turns through.

You could find examples at home or on the internet and bring them in or email them to school to discuss.

