

Chapter 19 – Rich task 1 - Is it misleading?

Page 313

1 Is it misleading?

- 1 Find at least one example of a misleading graph or statement.
You could look on the internet, in newspapers, in magazines, in reports, in other students' investigations or some other source.
- 2 Write a short report which includes:
 - Why the graphs/statements are misleading
 - A new graph or statement using the same data which is not misleading
- 3
 - a Create an example of your own that is misleading.
 - b Give it to your partner or group to analyse.

Search "misleading graphs" or "misleading statements" for some good internet sites.

Chapter 19 – Rich task 1 - Is it misleading?

Page 313

1 Is it misleading?

- 1 Find at least one example of a misleading graph or statement.
You could look on the internet, in newspapers, in magazines, in reports, in other students' investigations or some other source.
- 2 Write a short report which includes:
 - Why the graphs/statements are misleading
 - A new graph or statement using the same data which is not misleading
- 3
 - a Create an example of your own that is misleading.
 - b Give it to your partner or group to analyse.

Search "misleading graphs" or "misleading statements" for some good internet sites.

Chapter 19 – Rich task 1 - Is it misleading?

Page 313

1 Is it misleading?

- 1 Find at least one example of a misleading graph or statement.
You could look on the internet, in newspapers, in magazines, in reports, in other students' investigations or some other source.
- 2 Write a short report which includes:
 - Why the graphs/statements are misleading
 - A new graph or statement using the same data which is not misleading
- 3
 - a Create an example of your own that is misleading.
 - b Give it to your partner or group to analyse.

Search "misleading graphs" or "misleading statements" for some good internet sites.